“ Robert, Kathleen & Family, I am so very sorry to hear of Alison's passing. I worked with Alison at GE Capital and she and I had many conversations about our mutual love for animals. We have lost a beautiful soul and my thoughts and prayers go out to you. I am also with Critter Crusaders of Cedar Rapids - I am guessing it was you two who came by yesterday with Alison's memorial donation and it is I whom you spoke with. I wish I had put two and two together yesterday so we could have talked further but I didn't at the time. Your memorial to Alison will be posted on our Critter Crusaders Tribute page of our website where it should be available for viewing in a couple of days if not sooner. <https://crittercrusaderscr.org/in-memory/>. “ My dearest cousin Alison. Words cannot begin to express the deep sadness I have right now. I have so many wonderful memories of us as kids and cousin group with your incredible laugh. You and Lindsay were so close. Especially after you came and stayed with us that summer. You and her were two peas in a pod and I'm confident you two are now reunited. I think about you and Lindsay mimicking the knee slapping laugh like Gma Kruer. And when we all went to Hawaii together and all the fun we had there are precious memories that will never leave me. Your heart had been broken a very long time and had hoped we would be getting together soon to celebrate your latest wins in life. Oh Ali, this doesn't seem real. You are loved more than you could know. And I hope you feel it now. Especially as you reunite with your mom. I can only imagine how special that was and is. Reunited with Lindsay, Gma & Gpa Sherer, Aunt Judy and Uncle Bobby. You have so many family member that lovingly welcomed you! Til we meet again sweet cousin. In the meantime I will continue to honor your memory by spreading love wherever I go.

“ As Alison's heart grew weak, her soul grew strong. Her friends were important to her and loved hanging with them. She took everyone's problems to heart and didn't think twice in jumping in and doing everything she could to help you out. She would listen when you needed someone to talk to. If she didn't know the answer to a question you had concerns on. She would get her phone out and research it for you. She could operate that phone like a pro.

Alison had her share of obstacles thrown in front of her as she walked down her path of life. But she owned up to Them, dealt with them , and continued on. And for that I was so proud of her.

Friends meant a lot but her family was her all. She loved her dad more then anything else. She worried she would be a disappointment to him but after a few talks she understood about the unconditional love a parent has for their child. Even though they may not always agree with the decissions their children make they would always be there to pick them up, brush them off , and hold their hand til everything was ok again. Alison had that comfort knowing her dad loved her and would always be there for her.

I miss my friend and think of her often , she took alittle bit of my heart with her when she left. Love you Alison and I miss your beautiful face. Rest In Peace my friend .

“ Alison was my very close friend. Maybe the closest and the reason is that she was a caring and compassionate and loving human being. She was genuine and honest and a wonderful person and I am going to miss her something horribly. My deepest sympathy to her Dad and the rest of her family. She will be in my heart forever.
