“ Chris was a wonderful mom, wife and neighbor. I will always remember when I was in the backyard on the swing set doing the “upside down Penny drop” and when I landed I fell backward on my rear but also had my arm behind me landing on that also breaking it. I remember Chris asking “hon are you ok?” With my reply being “yes my arm just hurts” pulling it out from behind me realizing it looked like a spoon and Chris and Larry freaking out. They took great care of me until my parents got a pillow and drove me to hospital. While a Chris will be missed I am glad she is no longer suffering or struggling. Larry, Michelle, Tammy and Brian you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love and hugs to you all
