“ Out at the old farmhouse Laura and I will throw a party when Mom would be gone and I got so sick off Old Milwaukee in purple passion that I couldn't handle cleaning up the mess, so my big sis did it for me I will always be grateful. No Old Milwaukee and purple passion don't mix, but it does make purple toilet paper.

“ Growing up, I felt more like Laura was a sister than my cousin. She, our cousins Linda and Lori and myself were like peas in a pod. The fact that she wanted to make sure her first born child was named after me and then her next daughter named the same as my daughters name speaks for itself there!!! I am going to miss your contagious laughter and that smile! You may be gone but you definitely will not be forgotten!!
